

SUNBEAMS.

A Chinese newspaper has entered upon its two thousand volume. It has lost all its original subscribers.

The lawyers' fees in the Tichborne case amount to $600,000. The juries were paid $5 a day, and for 100 days during which the trial lasted, reflected $500.

A patriotic citizen boasts that "no people on the earth can exceed the Americans in the many art of sitting on a bench and watching eighteen men play ball."

A woman in Manchester, England, has been arrested for chloroforming women, and, while they were in an insensible condition cutting off and stealing their hair.

Prince Arthur has made his appearance as a lecturer at a foreign lecture, and the reception was excellent.

The London boys amuse themselves by placing percussion caps on the rails of the street cars, greatly frightening both horses and passengers.

The miasma has become so general that detectives have been detailed to watch and bring to justice the sportive youths.

The ladies of Alaska are said to wear body dress of equal proportions to men, and are ranged in the taste of the wearers. The married ladies all sit in rings in their noses and needles through their lower lips, while elderly ladies add to their irresistible charm a "stopper" whatever that may be in the upper lip.

It is said that a petition to Congress to prohibit the calling of any more children by the name of "George Washington" is in circulation out West, so far as I know it is due to the memory of George Washington, the great Washington lies and steals egregiously, and is already in jail in various parts of the country.

The Chinese cavale de visite is a curiosity. It consists of a long sheet of bright saffron paper, with the owner's name inscribed in large letters—the bigger the more exquisite. For extra grand occasions this card is folded ten times, the name written in the right hand, and the corners cut off, so that it looks like a simple banner; "your motherly friend who bows his head and pays his respects," etc., are the words "your stupid," taking the place of our "ours respectively." It is etiquette to return these cards to the visitors, it being presumable that their expense is too great for general distribution.
